For the list of accepted documents to apply for AADHAAR card changes click here: AADHAAR Card Documents Required for Changes. Wait a moment and try again. If you still have questions after your query was moved to answer page, please feel free to ask specific question(s). Put the completed AADHAAR card change request form along with the supporting documents in an envelope and on top of the envelope write "Aadhaar Update/Correction". Your AADHAAR card change request information will be verified by UIDAI representative and upon successful validation, the changes will be reflected in your AADHAAR card and the same will be communicated to you. After you verify it, you can download your AADHAAR card for printing. You can change the following data in your AADHAAR card, by sending the change request application through post: Name Address Mobile Phone Number Gender Date Of Birth For any other AADHAAR Card change requests, please visit any nearby AADHAAR card enrollment / update center. Next > Something went wrong. Click on "Request OTP." When it's sent to your mobile phone, enter it to open the file for printing. Use Your Enrollment Number (EID) to Download When vesting the UIDAI website, look for the "Download AADHAAR" link and click on it to navigate to the e-AADHAAR page. Your name must be clearly written below the signatures/thumbprint when self attesting the documents. To change Name in AADAAR card a Proof of Identity document is required. To contact nearby AADHAAR card center click here: Locate Nearby AADHAAR Card Centers. Maximum 4 AADHAAR Card change requests are allowed. First, visit the UIDAI website. You can also submit AADHAAR card change request online here: AADHAAR Card Changes Online - Name, Address, Phone, Gender, Date Of Birth. These cards serve as identification cards, as well as proof of residency if you're a resident of India. From there, you'll need to input your name, as well as either your mobile phone number or email address that you registered, and the security code. For example, you can use it to furnish proof of residency. You'll then need to request another OTP. There are many reasons why you may need to have your AADHAAR card printed out if you're a resident of India. Depending upon the AADHAAR card change request, a self attested supporting document will need to be sent, along with the completed update/correction form. You can enroll to receive an AADHAAR card by visiting banks, post offices or an AADHAAR center. Enter the security code on your screen and click "Request OTP." (OTP stands for "one-time password.") Enter the OTP you receive on your mobile phone. To apply for change request through post, download the update/correction form here: AADHAAR card Update/Correction Form. At this point, you'll need to return to the UIDAI website, click the e-AADHAAR link and fill out the information on the page. You can do so by using your name and date of birth when visiting the UIDAI website, then navigating to the "Find UID-EID" section. You will be required to submit the AADHAAR card change request in English as well as your local language (except numeric values such as Date of Birth, which will need to be entered only in English). To change Date of Birth in AADAAR card a Proof of Date of Birth document is required. Once you take a quick survey, your AADHAAR card number details will become available. Download and Print by VID (Virtual ID) UIDAI has an online portal you can visit where you will find a link that reads "Download AADHAAR." Navigate to the "Personal Details" screen, where you'll select the "VID" option in the first field. Follow these guidelines to learn how to print your AADHAAR card. What Is an AADHAAR Card? An AADHAAR card is one that's issued to residents of India by the Unique Identification Authority of India (UIDAI). Then, input your AADHAAR number, name and pin code. To change Address in AADAAR card a Proof of Address document is required. Fill in the complete AADHAAR card update/correction form and sign off. Your name, pin code and the security code shown on the screen also need to be inputted before clicking on "Request OTP." Once you enter the OTP on your mobile phone, you can click on "Download AADHAAR" and print your card. Downloading Your AADHAAR Using Your Name and Date of Birth If you've forgotten your EID or AADHAAR number, it's still possible to retrieve an electronic copy of your AADHAAR card and print it online. Then, in the following fields, input your virtual ID, name, pin code and the security code on the screen. Once you've done that, click the "Send OTP" button. MORE FROM QUESTIONS ANSWERED.NET From there, you'll enter your 14-digit enrollment number, as well as the time and date. Send the envelope to one of the AADHAAR card update/correction address given below. Clearly write your AADHAAR number on all document copies. To enroll you need to furnish your AADHAAR number, enrollment ID or virtual ID that was provided by the UIDAI. It's possible to download and print an electronic copy of your AADHAAR card online using your AADHAAR number. In such cases we will simply move your queries to that relevant page and inform you about the same through email. For children below five years, parent/guardian can fill and sign/provide thumbprint in the AADHAAR Card change request form and supporting document copies. Once you verify the OTP, you'll receive your AADHAAR number. Answers to most of the queries can be found on its relevant information page. From there, you'll need to look for a link that reads, "Download AADHAAR." Click on that link, and you'll navigate to the "Personal Details" section of the website, where you'll check the "AADHAAR" option in the first field and "Regular AADHAAR" in the second.
